2. I will describe the Youtube website. You can't download anything from this website if you not bought Youtube-Premium subscription. There's lots of content that you can only imagine, from tutorials how to cook to how to build nuclear reactor at home. It's so popular so it's don't even need presentation! Graphics of this website is pretty simple so anyone who using it can figure out how to use it. Some of videos is very good on the website but it depends on source audio quality. Special feature of youtube is that you're free in doing content because it doesn't have that much censorship. In my opinion youtube is very good website so there's nothing bad if you using it.
